PORTLAND, OREGON

22 MAY 1965

Raborn Thought He Was Paul Revere

CPYRGHT

-BY MARQUIS CHILDS

ntelligence Agency in shaping the rebellion nvolved in the rebellion. It ability was invaluable.

vas subsequently shown that

When he retired in 1963 he he list contained a number of became vice president for bvious errors.

harging into the National on the national scene and in security Council to warn that California.

ive to see that day."

n i a industrialist and a conducting our foreign poli-Republican, to head CIA. He cy." and had only limited experi- Raborn's defenders say that be motivated by a quite un- is important and here the con-

WASHINGTON — When it professional zeal and a desire trast with McCone is significomes to assessing the blame to keep in the public eye. But, cant. br the praise — depending on on the contrary, McCone The admiral's predecessor the viewpoint — for Ameri- proved to be a thoroughgoing rarely showed emotion or exthe Viewpoint — for American proved to be a thoroughgoing rarely showed emotion or excan military intervention in professional who shunned citement. He was given to unhe Dominican Republic it approved to be a thoroughgoing rarely showed emotion or excan military intervention in professional who shunned citement. He was given to unhere that a newcomer gets a ances. He won the respect of tious appraisal of the facts arger share than had been the top staff built on the foundation and the estimates as assembled to the world war II bled by his immediate sub-For Vice Adm. William F. OSS. For both personal and ordinates whose professional-Raborn (Ret.) it was an initial business reasons he had long ism he respected. venture as head of the Central wanted to return to California.

he course of a major crisis. Raborn had no experience from the first he insisted with in intelligence. His distin-Raborn had no experience eeply emotional conviction guished naval career was hat the rebellion was climaxed with his direction Communist - dominated and of the planning and construction of the Polaris submarine. mminent. He gave the Presi- In pushing through this notalent the list of 55 Communists ble advance his organizing program management But it was Raborn's gung-ho Aerojet - General, the big depproach to his task that star- fense contracting firm that is led other participants in the a subsidiary of the General ligh-level conference leading Tire and Rubber Co. at Azusa, high-level conference leading Tire and Rubber Co. at Azusa, o the decision to send in the Calif. The head of Aerojet-Marines. As one of the Presi- General is former secretary of lent's principal advisers re- the Navy Dan Kimball. Big, narked afterward, the admi- jovial, hard-driving Kimball is al seemed to have cast him- an ardent Democrat who has against a broad understanding elf in the role of Paul Revere played an important role both

"I wish John McCone was retired generals and admirals Cone understood,
"I wish John McCone was retired generals and admirals Cone understood,
"I wish John McCone was retired generals and admirals Cone understood,
"I wish John McCone was retired generals and admirals Cone understood,
"I wish John McCone was retired generals and admirals Cone understood, till over there running the were whooping it up for Barry IA," another participant Goldwater Adm. Raborn was another participant Goldwater Adm. Raborn was farseeing view. aid, "and I never thought I'd one of the very few who came out publicly for Johnson's re-election. In a statement issued This reflects a widespread by the Democratic National eeling at the change of com- Committee in Washington he mand in the agency that has said, "If the human race is to such far-flung powers exercis- survive. America's awesome ed in almost-total secrecy, nuclear power should be enthere were deep misgivings trusted only to a man who can when President Kennedy nambe counted upon to exercise and McCone, a wealthy Califor- calm judgment and wisdom in Raborn's defenders say that ence in intelligence as un- this is his shakedown cruise in dersecretary of the Air Force intelligence and it is, thereand chairman of the Atomic fore, unfair to judge him on nergy Commission. his early performance. But The fear was that he would the question of temperament

In the view of specialists who observed McCone's operation this was the right approach and particularly for the present occupant of the White House. Restraint and reserve are two qualities that tend to be in short supply in the executive office.

"If there is one thing the President does not need, devoted co-worker remarked. "it is someone to send him into orbit. He gets into orbit without any help at all."

In today's complex and peri-lous world the direction of a vast intelligence apparatus and the advice based on that operation must be measured of trend and policies everywhere. A crusading anti-com-munism, however dedicated, is hardly a substitute, as Mcfor restraint that goes with a